In the center of Corniglia, an ancient medieval village immersed in the magical atmosphere of the Cinque Terre, we offer this completely renovated building on three levels, with a large panoramic terrace where you can enjoy the view of the Ligurian sea.

The property is divided into 3 distinct apartments, one on each floor, each with stone details and romantic balconies. The penthouse has private access to the panoramic terrace. For each house we can take advantage of a reserved parking space. We are in one of the most renowned and appreciated areas of Liguria, known for its charm and its splendid views, we are in fact on a cliff close to the sea, in that very special area known as the "Gulf of Poets", ideal for restoring yourself with its unique landscapes and for visiting its fascinating ancient villages. Also ideal for tourist rental investment.

The firm remains available to provide further details on request, and to arrange an inspection where of real interest.
